You have been selected to join the global community of young leaders - congratulations!
Over the next few days, you are going to have truly life-changing experiences: connecting with your global peers; hearing from world-famous leaders, and experiencing our incredible Host City, Belfast. 2023 is a remarkable year, marking the 25th Anniversary of the historic Good Friday Agreement which saw the end of more than thirty years of conflict - there is no better time for young changemakers to gather in Northern Ireland and learn from this unique place. We know you’ll find endless things to do in Belfast, a city which has world-class attractions; historic landmarks; a buzzing cultural scene, and fantastic “craic”. Everyone in Belfast has worked so hard to welcome you - so please make the most of getting to know the local population and hearing their stories. We’re so proud to bring the One Young World Summit to Belfast - see you soon!

Best wishes,
David Jones & Kate Robertson
Co-Founders, One Young World
We are absolutely thrilled and truly honoured that Belfast will host the 2023 One Young World summit, providing a unique opportunity for young people from every country in the world to meet and engage with our own young leaders and community representatives.

Belfast is a young city, a vibrant city, a hopeful city. A city with a rich culture and a packed history down every street. And with an energy that is driving our resurgence and regeneration. We are all aware of the significance of One Young World's arrival in Belfast coinciding with the 25th anniversary of the signing of the Good Friday Agreement and the opportunity to share our story and to hopefully inspire hundreds of remarkable young people from across the globe. We look forward to welcoming you all and making you feel at home in our amazing city.

Lord Mayor of Belfast, Councillor Ryan Murphy

Exploring a city can be tricky if you don’t know your way around, or even what to look out for. Get a flavour of Belfast with this taster to help navigate your way around the city’s areas and quarters.

CITY CENTRE
Home to the iconic Belfast City Hall, St George’s Market and the main shopping district. You’ll be spoilt for choice with the abundance of cool cafés, great pubs, trendy bars and an amazing restaurant scene. Start off in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre (opposite City Hall) to pick up information, book tours and find out everything to make the most of your time while studying in Belfast.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER
Packed full of fascinating architecture, buzzing beer gardens, trendy warehouse restaurants, cobbledstoned streets, and colourful street art; this area of town contrasts the old with the new, with St. Anne’s Square, home to the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) and a piazza of welcoming eateries, alongside some of the oldest streets in Belfast.

LINEN QUARTER
Belfast was once nicknamed “Linenopolis” as it was the world leader in the production of linen in the 19th Century. Just south of City Hall, you can enjoy the architecture of the old linen mills which house a mix of of ces, chic bars and renowned restaurants. This is a great part of town to enjoy dinner and drinks before a show at the Grand Opera House.

TITANIC QUARTER
Steeped in memories of a bygone era, the Titanic Quarter is now a fun and energetic urban waterfront development. Visit or take a tour of the many historic and state-of-the-art Titanic visitor attractions, or simply stroll around the Maritime Mile to learn more about the city’s shipbuilding heritage.

QUEEN’S QUARTER
The area surrounding Queen’s University is a treasure trove of eclectic shops, boutiques, cafés, affordable places to eat, bars and art galleries. Visit the collections of the Ulster Museum, sign up for a class in the Crescent Arts Centre, enjoy world cinema at QFT, chill out in Botanic Gardens or take a jog along the banks of the River Lagan.

GAELTACHT QUARTER
The centre for Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. An Cultúrlann showcases cultural Irish Gaelic traditions and contains a restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore the stunning Clonard Monastery or enjoy the 3 mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

EAST SIDE
EastSide was once the beating heart of the city’s industrial past with thousands of people employed in linen mills, rope factories, engineering works and shipyards. EastSide is now thriving once again but this time as a hub of culture and creativity. Make the EastSide Visitor Centre your first stop, with information on things to do in east Belfast.

THE SHANKILL
Straddling North and West Belfast, the Shankill is home to a wide collection of painted murals depicting the social and political history of the area. Places of interest include the Peace Wall, the Old Shankill Graveyard, dating back to the 14th century, the Shankill Memorial Park and the ancient Bullaun Stone. The Spectrum Centre, a major landmark in the area, hosts a range of events and exhibitions.
Belfast is a buzzing and diverse city offering a range of colourful events and vibrant nightlife. Home to the largest lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender festival in Ireland, the city has a thriving LGBT+ community and gay scene.

NIGHTLIFE

Belfast's best gay bars and clubs* are located in the city’s Smithfield and Union Quarter area, north of the city centre on the edge of the Cathedral Quarter.

Union Street Bar
8–14 Union Street
Situated in a 19th century shoe factory, Union Street Bar is one of the city’s most stylish bars with a cool yet comfy vibe. Upstairs, the Green Room Cocktail Lounge is particularly worth a visit, and the adjoining Shoe Factory provides wacky entertainment, from bingo and karaoke to quizzes and cabaret.

Maverick Bar
1 Union Street
Maverick Bar on Union Street is a popular gay bar, well-loved for its eclectic live music nights and comedy shows. The open mic sessions are unmissable, taking place every Wednesday.
maverickbelfast.com

Kremlin
96 Donegall Street
The city’s most famous gay club is probably Kremlin on Donegall Street. A Soviet-style industrial opulence exudes throughout the venue’s extravagant decor, with the Tsar Cocktail Lounge, the Long Bar and Red Square continuing the communist-chic vibe. A huge variety of theme nights, celebrity performances and the friendliest up-for-it clubbers gives Kremlin the reputation of being the best gay venue in Ireland.

More Information
The Belfast LGBT Centre is located at 23-31 Waring Street in Belfast’s Cathedral Quarter, which houses a number of charities including the Rainbow Project and Cara Friend, providing counselling, befriending, information and a health and social space for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community.
Belfast has an impressive array of gallery spaces, displaying everything from the most contemporary visual art at the Golden Thread Gallery and contemporary photographic exhibitions at Belfast Exposed to the freshest modern art in The MAC.

The Naughton Gallery at Queen’s features a rolling programme of works from the University’s own collection, touring exhibitions and shows by local and international artists and the Atypical Gallery is the only permanent exhibition space in Ireland dedicated specifically to highlighting the work of disabled and D/deaf artists.

Ulster Museum
An inspiring piece of modern architecture set in the beautiful Botanic Gardens, the Ulster Museum is the largest museum in Northern Ireland and is free to visit. Impressive galleries and interactive discovery zones bring history, science and art collections to life and its unparalleled collection of Irish art is well worth seeing.

Craft NI Gallery
Make a stop at Royal Avenue where you’ll find this lovely combination of shop and gallery, showcasing a range of ceramics, jewellery, sculptures, design items, fabrics, cards and art by local makers. The crafts exhibited change constantly and also showcase work by young, emerging artists.

The Bradley Gallery
Terry Bradley is probably one of the most recognisable and collectable artists working in Ireland today, so make a stop at his pop-up gallery on the ground floor of Victoria Square. terrybradley.com
The Murals
Once described as “the world’s greatest open-air gallery”, the murals of Belfast are a must-see experience. Artworks range from Republican and Loyalist political statements to colourful celebrations of the city’s famous sons and daughters. The Peace Wall that divides two communities in West Belfast is home to a vibrant mix of political murals, graffiti and commissioned public art – stop by to add your own message of peace and hope.

Public Art
Belfast has over 150 pieces of distinctive public art scattered across the city. Highlights include the ‘Big Fish’ on Donegall Quay, whose scales are made up of ceramic tiles decorated with texts and images relating to the history of Belfast, while the biggest art sculpture in the city is ‘Rise’ - its concentric globes symbolising the rising sun and new hope for the city’s future.

The Linen Hall
Founded in 1788, The Linen Hall is the oldest library in Belfast and the last subscribing library in Ireland. It is renowned for its unparalleled Irish and Local Studies Collection and is a tranquil reading nook in the heart of the city.

FOOD & DRINK TOURS
There are a number of delicious food and drink tours on offer in and around the city. Choose from the Belfast Food Tour around the city’s gastronomic hot spots, the Belfast Gin Jaunt around the best cocktail bars, the Crafty Beer & Street Eats tour around the best beer bars or the Whiskey Walk around the Cathedral Quarter.

You’ll find 6 Game of Thrones stained glass windows dotted along the Maritime Mile, from AC Hotel past Titanic Studios to HMS Caroline. Take a stroll to rediscover the most iconic moments from the saga immortalised in stained glass.

THE BELFAST BUOYS
The three buoys are estimated to be around 80 years old, and would have been used by mariners to find a safe channel to and from port. Recently restored to their original colours, they have been installed as a permanent display at Abercorn Basin.

SS NOMADIC
The last remaining White Star Line vessel, SS Nomadic, has been restored to her original glory and is back home in the historic Hamilton Dock, near Titanic Belfast. Come on board and experience over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.

TITANIC BELFAST
One of the world’s leading visitor attractions is housed in an iconic six-floor building. With nine interpretive and interactive galleries that explore the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Titanic, as well as the city and people which made her, Titanic Belfast is an unmissable experience.

TITANIC & OLYMPIC SLIPWAYS
Behind Titanic Belfast you’ll find the historic slipways where these famous ships were built and launched over a hundred years ago. Containing many original features, a Memorial Garden illustrates the proportion of Titanic’s victims and survivors from each of the passenger classes and crew. The outline of the sister ships illuminate at night and are the perfect space to reflect.

TITANIC HOTEL BELFAST
The original red brick building is a truly authentic part of Titanic’s story. Harland and Wolff had two main drawing offices within the building, Drawing Office Two is now the vibrant heart of the hotel where you can relax and enjoy lunch, dinner or even a cocktail or two. This breathtaking room is where many of the world’s most famous ocean liners, including RMS Titanic, were painstakingly designed.

RIVERBOX
Take a walk along the Titanic Slipways and experience one of the latest additions to the Maritime Mile - Riverbox! Equipped with cutting edge video and audio technology it can host video installations, interactive projects, live events and a wide range of audio experiences. Take a moment and enjoy!

THE GREAT LIGHT
This former lighthouse optic is a unique heritage object with significance to Belfast’s economic industrial maritime past. Originally serving both Mew and Tory Island lighthouses, the optic is the largest of its kind ever constructed and dates back to 1887. It is lit all year round and has amazing views over Belfast Harbour and Lough.

HICKSON’S POINT
Make a stop to ‘rest your wee legs’ while out enjoying the Maritime Mile. Offering an authentic 1900’s public house setting, serving up perfect pints and classic Clangers with traditional music, heritage décor and a beer garden! Located on the plaza outside Titanic Belfast, Hickson’s Point is open daily and dog-friendly!

SOUND YARD
SoundYard is a playful art installation inspired by the sounds of Belfast’s shipyards. Located on Queen’s Quay close to the Odyssey and Abercorn Marina, visitors can enjoy this interactive sound and play experience which brings to life the story of Belfast’s maritime heritage.

VISITBELFAST.COM
Belfast packs a punch when it comes to high quality speciality coffee, with excellent baristas, funky interiors and, of course, an excellent cuppa, you’ll be kick starting your day the right way.

What’s more, many of these local gems stay open late, hosting everything from craft circles and acoustic music to regular board game nights, dishing up fabulous treats and keeping the caffeine flowing for late nights in the library! Here are a few of the best ones to check out:

CLEMENTS
One of the longest established locally-owned coffee chains, Clements is a firm favourite of ering great coffee and tasty treats. They pride themselves on being passionate about the products they sell, and you can visit them at a number of locations across the city centre and Queen’s Quarter including Queen’s University’s PEC, MBC, Elmwood Avenue and McClay Library and also The Mall at Ulster University.

ESTABLISHED COFFEE
Established was one of the first trailblazers on Belfast’s coffee scene and is probably at the top of many a Belfast coffee lover’s list. It’s located in Belfast’s trendy Cathedral Quarter and is a hipster’s paradise, with industrial bare cement floors and walls and plenty of plug sockets to hook up your MacBook. Not only do they make amazing coffee, but the food is top notch also.

KAFFE O
Kaffe O brings a little Scandinavian charm to Belfast — as well as great coffee. This Nordic-inspired coffee house has branches on Botanic Avenue, Ormeau Road as well as their kiosk on Donegall Square North opposite Belfast City Hall. Their coveted blend is the reason for their success, which is imported from Ricco’s Kaffe bars in Copenhagen.

OUTPUT ESPRESSO
Open seven days a week, Output offers a standout range of breakfast, brunch and lunch options, along with – of course – great coffee. And that’s not all: there’s even a short cocktail menu too.

GROUND ESPRESSO BARS
A local coffee chain which prides itself in maintaining a welcoming atmosphere producing excellent coffee, served with innovation in an ethical manner. In Belfast you’ll find them at Victoria Square, Queen Street, Waterstones on Fountain Street and Next on Donegall Place.

DILLY AND DOLLY’S
Opened with the aim to be ‘the most Instagrammable coffee shop in Ireland’, Dilly and Dolly’s has been stopping people in their tracks since they opened the doors on Ann Street. This pretty pink, quirky coffee shop is known for its delicious gelato, tasty coffee and treats that almost look too perfect to eat.
the food and drinks served; it simply asks for donations based on what you think your order is worth.

ROOT & BRANCH CAFÉ & ROASTERS
A roastery & brew bar on the Newtownards Road, it’s a place for creativity, experimentation and regular new roasts. Most of all, it’s a place where you can have a wonderful cup of coffee or buy some beans to bring home. They also offer a carefully curated programme of events designed to elevate your coffee experience.

GUILT TRIP
This destination coffee and donut shop is the brainchild of ex-Ulster Rugby stars, Callum Black and Darren Cave. Guilt Trip is one of the coolest coffee spots in town, serving aeropress, batch and some seriously tasty donuts. You can also pre-order your donuts for pick-up.

NEIGHBOURHOOD CAFE
Neighbourhood is a great choice for fantastic specialty coffee and has a brilliant brunch menu too, as well as lots of tasty freshly baked goods and treats.

DISTRICT
District is an independently-owned coffee shop/deli serving fine coffee and great food on Saintfield Road, Lisburn Road and Ormeau Road, with loads of vegan and vegetarian options. District uses local roaster, Bailies, with single-origins served on espresso and pour-over through the V60.

THE POCKET
A small, humble establishment in the city centre located in the Flatiron Building on Upper Church Lane, serving high quality fresh food with a delicious brunch style menu. Enjoy great coffee, hot chocolate and iced teas in a chilled atmosphere.

LAMPPOST CAFÉ
For something a little bit different, check out this CS Lewis-themed café on the Newtownards Road. With a Narnia twist on tea shop decor, a ragtime soundtrack and everything served on vintage crockery, you will feel as though you have stepped back in time (or into the wardrobe!).

GENERAL MERCHANTS
This relaxed local neighbourhood eatery serves fine coffee and Antipodean brunches with the finest and freshest locally sourced food daily. There are 5 locations to discover: Ormeau Road, Stranmillis, Forestside, East Belfast, and a kiosk on Donegall Place in Belfast City Centre.

THE DOCK CAFÉ
The Dock Café is perhaps one of the most interesting and eclectic cafés in Belfast. Run by volunteers and based in the Titanic Quarter, it’s an ‘Honesty Box’ café which means it doesn’t charge for the food and drinks served.
Enjoy the taste of Belfast’s food and drink culture, from restaurants and local craft producers to festivals, events and food trails, plus everything in between. Belfast boasts an amazing choice of places to eat and drink. Get inspiration and release your inner foodie.

VEGETARIAN & VEGAN MENUS
Whether you are vegan or vegetarian, there is a great selection of cuisines to choose from in Belfast. Why not try 2Taps Wine Bar. Located in the heart of Belfast’s Cathedral Quarter their large menu includes vegan and vegetarian tapas, salads and desserts.
