Exploring a city can be tricky if you don’t know your way around, or even what to look out for. Get a flavour of Belfast with this taster to help navigate your way around the city’s areas and quarters.

CITY CENTRE
Home to the iconic Belfast City Hall, St George’s Market and the main shopping district. You’ll be spoilt for choice with the abundance of cool cafés, great pubs, trendy bars and an amazing restaurant scene. Start off in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre (opposite City Hall) to pick up information, book tours and find out everything to make the most of your visit.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER
Discover captivating architecture, lively beer gardens, chic warehouse restaurants, quaint cobbled streets, and vibrant street art. This dynamic neighborhood seamlessly blends the historic with the contemporary – from the iconic St. Anne’s Square, housing the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) with a lively piazza of inviting eateries, to the timeless allure of some of Belfast’s oldest streets.

LINEN QUARTER
Belfast was once nicknamed “Linenopolis” as it was the world leader in the production of linen in the 19th Century. Just south of City Hall, you can enjoy the architecture of the old linen mills which house a mix of offices, chic bars and renowned restaurants. This is a great part of town to enjoy dinner and drinks before an entertaining show at the Grand Opera House.

TITANIC QUARTER
Steeped in memories of a bygone era, the Titanic Quarter is now a fun and energetic urban waterfront development. Visit or take a tour of the many historic and state-of-the-art Titanic visitor attractions, or simply stroll along the Maritime Mile to learn more about the city’s shipbuilding heritage.

QUEEN’S QUARTER
This leafy area is home to a treasure trove of shops, cafes, bars and art galleries. Visit the collections at the Ulster Museum, stroll around the Victorian Palm House in the stunning Botanic Gardens, take in an art-house movie at the QFT or enjoy live music and stand-up comedy at the Empire Music Hall. The nearby Lisburn Road is a haven for designer shopping, quaint cafes, artisan delis & stylish salons.

GAELTACHT QUARTER
The centre for Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. An Cultúrlann showcases cultural Irish Gaelic traditions and contains a restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore the stunning Clonard Monastery or enjoy the 3 mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

EAST SIDE
EastSide was once the beating heart of the city’s industrial past with thousands of people employed in linen mills, rope factories, engineering works and shipyards. EastSide is now thriving once again but this time as a hub of culture and creativity. Make the EastSide Visitor Centre your first stop, with information on key attractions in east Belfast.

THE SHANKILL
Straddling North and West Belfast, the Shankill is home to a wide collection of painted murals depicting the social and political history of the area. Places of interest include the Peace Wall, the Old Shankill Graveyard, dating back to the 14th century, the Shankill Memorial Park and the ancient Bullaun Stone. The Spectrum Centre, a major landmark in the area, hosts a range of events and exhibitions.

Giants Causeway
A UNESCO World Heritage site, this magnificent, mysterious geological formation on the coast of Co. Antrim is NI’s most visited attraction. The setting is a spectacular, dynamic coastal landscape of Atlantic waves, rugged cliffs, fascinating geographical antiquity, secluded bays and magnificent views.

Carrick-A-Rede Rope Bridge
Suspended almost 30m (100ft) above sea level, the rope bridge was first erected by salmon fishermen over 200 years ago. Crossing the bridge is a thrilling experience and brave explorers are rewarded with stunning views across to the Scottish islands, and a chance to see the original fishery on the island.

Hillsborough Castle
From grand family home to charming royal residence, Hillsborough Castle has welcomed the world and witnessed pivotal chapters in politics. A castle tour includes guided access to all the State Rooms that make up this elegant Georgian home. You can also explore 100 acres of beautiful gardens to complete a relaxing day out for the whole family.

[link to hrp.org.uk/hillsborough-castle]

Castle Ward
A unique 18th-century mansion, famed for its mixture of architectural styles. Inside the 820 acre walled demesne you will find an exotic sunken garden and paths that wind their way through woodland onto the shores of the Lough. The historic farmyard is the location of Winterfell from Game of Thrones.

Mount Stewart
Nineteenth-century mansion house with one of the world’s most outstanding gardens. Guided tours available of both house and gardens or explore at your own leisure.

[link to mountstewart]

Rowallane Garden, Saintfield
This informal plantsman’s garden reflects the beautiful natural landscape of the surrounding area. There are spectacular displays of shrubs, including a large collection of rhododendron species and several areas managed as wildflower meadows.

[link to nationaltrust.org.uk/rowallane]

The Argory
This atmospheric Irish gentry house was built in the 1820s and is surrounded by a wooded riverside estate. Take a tour of this neo-classical masterpiece and outside enjoy the sweeping vistas, superb spring flowers, scenic walks and fascinating courtyard displays.

[link to nationaltrust.org.uk/the-argory]

Hill of The O’Neill & Ranfurly House
The centrepiece to the Hill of The O’Neill is the exhibition in Ranfurly House. This tells the story of the Flight of The Earls and the Plantation of Ulster, and the important role that Dungannon played in these two historical events that would forever change these islands.

[link to hilloftheoneill.com]

Antrim Castle Gardens
The gardens are a complex living museum containing over four centuries of culture and heritage. Within the heart of the 60 acre gardens is a unique visitor experience, Clotworthy House. Visit the Garden Heritage Exhibition where you can read about the history of the gardens or the Oriel Gallery art exhibitions.

Visitors can explore 10 sculptures along the trail with an exciting augmented reality app that takes you on a journey through the forest, leading you from one artist's sculpture to the next. The trail is based on themes inspired by Hillsborough Forest and the surrounding area which include: child's-play, reflection, motion, science, fantasy, heritage, hope & inspiration, nature and flight. At each sculpture the app will open another world that comes alive! Once you’ve completed the trail, the app will unlock a range of discounts from local businesses to be enjoyed in the adjacent village of Royal Hillsborough.

Alpaca Trekking

Ballyburren Outdoor Escapes presents Ireland's only purpose-built scenic alpaca trekking trail with a coffee trailer on-site. Meet the alpacas Mocha, Flat White and Espresso, head out on the trail, which takes 30-40 minutes and finish off with a speciality coffee. Or why not go the extra mile and pre-book a luxurious picnic hamper to enjoy in the picnic area.

The art of craft

A tour at Hinch Distillery is not just an exploration of history, production, and their bold range of triple distilled whiskeys; it’s an invitation to sit and learn from the characters that bring it to life through an immersive sensory journey. The tour begins in the ingredients room, taking visitors through the spectacular distillery processes, before viewing the stunning copper pot stills; Donard, Croob and Wee Binnian – named after three local mountains. The spectrum room is a space where sensory stimulation explains how a barrel breathes life into the spirit. Finish up in the exclusive Tasting Bar, where guests will have the chance to sample some of the beautiful whiskeys in the Hinch vast collection.
Hillsborough Castle & Gardens

Explore Northern Ireland’s royal residence, where worlds and minds meet. Relax in 100 acres of picturesque gardens, explore the State Rooms still used today and indulge in delicious food and drink in the café. There’s over 100 acres of ornamental lawns, an imaginary menagerie, peaceful woodlands, and picturesque glens throughout the seasons. Don’t miss the stunning Spring Spectacular and be dazzled by over half a million bulbs in bloom when daffodils and crocuses mark their emergence from winter, handing over to tulips and camassia later in the spring. Don’t miss admiring the large selection of rare Northern Irish daffodils.

Ireland’s oldest independent brewery

Learn about Hilden House and Barbour Threads Linen Mill, and how they came to start a brewery in Hilden over 40 years ago as the first Independent brewery in Ireland. Discover how the craft beer at Hilden Brewery is made here in Lisburn, visiting the original brewhouse where the magic first began, the new brewhouse, bottling plant and canning line. Follow that up with a delicious bowl of Irish stout stew with a slice of wheaten bread and a flight of three beers of your choice from the 8 taps in the Tap Room.

Wine and Brine, Moira

Dine in style

Awarded a Bib Gourmand in the Michelin Guide for Great Britain & Ireland 2023, dinner at Wine and Brine, Moira is a must! Michelin-star trained Chris gifts skills honed from 20 years of training with acclaimed chefs like Richard Corrigan, Pierre Koffmann and Gary Rhodes. Experience the theatrical open kitchen in the main restaurant, or choose from one of two private dining rooms (14 – 40 people) for a private event or celebration. Menus change daily and as its name suggests, some of the meats are gently brined using whey from a local dairy supplier. Dining at Wine & Brine is an incredible sensory experience you don’t want to miss.

A sustainable nature experience

Walk it Off NI offer sustainable and eco-friendly walking and food experiences run by Nikki Elliott, a passionate advocate of the benefits of connecting with nature. Hillsborough Royal Brew is a 5km stroll which takes you on a mindful, guided walk through lush landscape and the picturesque grounds of Royal Hillsborough village. At the end of your walk, you’ll arrive at an 18th century Inn to learn of the village’s beer-brewing history including the country’s only “Royal” beer, before sampling four delicious Irish beers together with some wonderful, paired tapas.

Dog-friendly dining

Joxer brings you the ultimate intimate dining experience in the heart of Royal Hillsborough, serving up speciality coffee, breakfast, brunch and lunch 7 days a week with dinner available Thursday-Saturday. Inspired by rustic Mediterranean flavours and showcasing quality local produce by independent suppliers, Joxer strives to ensure a warm welcome to all, four legged friends included, because they are always dog-friendly! It’s the perfect place to unwind after a good walk in the forest.
Feeling lucky?

Down Royal Racecourse has brought the ‘Sport of Kings’ to generations of people in Ulster since the 17th Century and is proud to boast some of the most modern facilities for any racegoer. At Down Royal Racecourse you’ll find not only an amazing racetrack and top-quality racing events but also outstanding hospitality packages and dining options within the grounds to suit an array of price ranges. With 13 fixtures across the year, Down Royal offers a truly exciting day out for all, and make sure to dress in green this spring for the annual St Patrick’s Day meet!

Energy release

Get some adrenaline kicks at High Rise, Lisburn! Climb over 8 metres high to take the “leap of faith” off the podium to hit your target! Standing at 9 metres high, the “vertical drop slide” ends with a thrilling free fall! Only the bravest have conquered the top! How high will you go? Special attraction wristbands can be purchased when booking online or on arrival at reception.

Stay a while

Myrtle the Glamping Truck at Larchfield Estate is the perfect escape from the hustle and bustle – an outdoor camping experience with a difference. This stunning 1952 Saurer Swiss Army truck has been beautifully adapted and crafted to present a romantic getaway escape, complete with a wood burning stove, under bed heating, sauna, hammock, and fire pit.

If you’re passionate about the preservation of old architecture and antiques and enjoy a luxurious night away, then book your next stay at Arthur’s of Royal Hillsborough. This beautiful guest house has 12 boutique bedrooms and a delicious, hearty breakfast is served in the stylish front room for residents every morning. With Northern Ireland’s only royal village on your doorstep, you won’t be lost for things to see and do during your stay!
